The Ways I Could Be Held
by Jack Cape

Sometimes —

(Forgive me)

I think of all the ways I could be held.

If I were to be baptized in the blue-green waters of the Aegean tomorrow,
Surely there would be hands placed beneath me —

So I could float.

The musky embrace of a new lover.
The gentle moment when he lays his head upon my chest.

It all seems so fantastical now.

A faraway castle
In a distant land.
